

Do you want to increase your wedding business?

With a 90% usage rate, this tool will increase your wedding bookings quickly and significantly.

More than half of my hospitality sales career was in Catering & Convention Services and as an EVP of Sales & Marketing for one of the top five third party management companies for 10 years, I have seen my share of tools. Trust me! I know a good sales tool when I see one.

For many years, I trained sales people that the first proposal in the buyer's mailbox is the standard for which all other proposals will be compared to. Therefore, it is very important to respond within hours of getting the sales lead. However, in a busy sales environment that can sometimes be a challenge. And to top it off our clients want instant gratification.

Wedding QuickQuote, is the solution you need for capturing the attention of brides, couples and wedding planners. Within minutes a potential bride can check for space, view your venue, select her package and amenities and receive an estimated quote for her event. No other booking tool offers such ease of use for the buyer and places the venue ahead of the competition with response time.

If that wasn't enough to peak your interest, when you sign up for Wedding QuickQuote, it comes with a micro vanity site to showcase your weddings, a social media audit to insure you are using cutting edge best practices to attract wedding clients and state of the art lead tracking and data capture.

In a recent case study a hotel received bookings resulting in a 40:1 ROI in the first year!

The pricing for Wedding QuickQuote is very reasonable. Book one wedding and you have paid for your annual subscription!
